CRIME VICTIM ASSISTANCE DIVISION DIRECTOR'S COMMENTS

If you don't like the way the world is, you change it. You have an obligation to change it. You just do it one step at a time.

Marian Wright Edelman

This FY03 Annual Report is our best effort to be accountable for the policies and work accomplished by the staff and volunteers of the Crime Victim Assistance Division from July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2003. The report is full of numbers and words and lists. But numbers, words and lists are just a snapshot – they convey a still shot of a dynamic process.

The mission of the Crime Victim Assistance Division and the Crime Victim Assistance Board is to advocate for the rights and the needs of crime victims and ensure that all crime victims and survivors will be treated with respect and dignity. To accomplish this mission, we must be responsive to the needs and issues of crime victims and victim service providers in relation to the programs we administer. We work to listen well, advocate effectively, and perform our jobs efficiently. We invite feedback and suggestions from the public, the justice system, and others on our performance, processes, and policy.

We do not accomplish our mission by ourselves. CVAD has a ten member multi-disciplinary statutory Board and a twenty member Council on Violence Against Women. These esteemed bodies help assure that our policy and work is thoughtful, victim-friendly, and without undesired consequences. We work with coalitions of victim service programs to learn what is happening in the real lives of crime victims. We convene a multi-disciplinary team of experts to review grant proposals for the precious small funds available to assist victims in Iowa communities. And we survey all applicants to the Crime Victim Compensation Program, whether approved or denied, to assess our helpfulness, communication, and attitude.

I thank all of those who help us better serve crime victims. I thank Attorney General Miller and his staff in the Iowa Department of Justice who support and direct our work so effectively. And I thank the twenty-one women and men who come to work everyday at CVAD to make a difference in the lives of victims and in the systems that serve them. The CVAD staff is truly an outstanding group dedicated to public service.

With support and feedback, CVAD will continue to search for the best practices in victim service. We will continue to work with others who care deeply about justice. Please read this report with that in mind and feel free to give us feedback on our work with crime victims.

IOWA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE CRIME VICTIM ASSISTANCE DIVISION

OVERVIEW

The Crime Victim Assistance Division (CVAD) of the Attorney General's Office was established by the Iowa General Assembly in July 1989 to consolidate programs for crime victims at the state level. The Division was the first state level office established for the sole purpose of assisting victims of crime and the programs that serve them.

The Crime Victim Assistance Board is established by statute and appointed by the Attorney General. The Board oversees the development and application of administrative rules for the Division and hears program appeals from applicants and claimants.

The CVAD is a division of the Criminal Justice Bureau of the Attorney General's Office and is responsible for administration of the following programs in Iowa:

- The Crime Victim Compensation Program
- The Sexual Abuse Examination Payment Program
- The Victim Services Grants Program:
 - Federal Victims of Crime Act funds
 - Federal Violence Against Women Act funds
 - Federal Family Violence Prevention & Services Act funds
 - State Domestic Abuse funds
 - State Sexual Abuse funds
- The Iowa Crisis Response Team

The Crime Victim Compensation Program, Sexual Abuse Examination Program, Federal Victims of Crime Act, and State Domestic Abuse and Sexual Abuse funds are comprised entirely from fines and penalties assessed state and federal convicted criminals.

The Federal Family Violence Prevention and Services Act and Violence Against Women Act funds are appropriated annually by the United States Congress.

The Iowa Crisis Response Team is comprised of 130 nationally trained volunteers. Funds that support the team come from private donations and criminal fines and penalties.

CRIME VICTIM ASSISTANCE DIVISION CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION PROGRAM

DETAILED REPORT FISCAL YEAR 2003

The Crime Victim Compensation Program provides financial assistance to victims who have suffered personal injury as a result of a criminal act. Benefits are awarded for out-of-pocket expenses and lost wages related to emotional and physical injury suffered by the victim and the victim's family as a result of the crime. In addition, the victims may receive compensation for lost wages related to cooperation with the investigation and prosecution of the crime. The program does not compensate victims for damaged or stolen property.

ELIGIBILITY

To qualify for compensation the applicant must be a person who suffers personal injury, death, or a substantial threat of personal injury or death as a result of a crime committed in Iowa. Iowa residents who are victims of a crime committed in a state, or country, which does not have a compensation program, also may be eligible for assistance from the Iowa program. The Crime Victim Compensation Program is available to all crime victims regardless of their means and income. Benefits are reimbursement of a victim's actual out-of-pocket expenses and lost wages.

Eligible persons include those emotionally or physically injured by the following crimes:

Homicide	Assault	Vehicular Homicide
Domestic Abuse	Kidnapping	Drunk or intoxicated Driving
Adult Sexual Abuse	Robbery	Hit and Run Driving
Child Sexual Abuse	Stalking	Reckless Driving

2. An application MUST BE filed with the Compensation Program within two years of the occurrence of or discovery of the crime. The time limit in this requirement may be waived if good cause is shown.
3. In the case of child abuse or dependent adult abuse by a caretaker, the crime must be reported to the Iowa Department of Human Services. There is no time limitation for making a report of a child or dependent adult's abuse by caretaker.
4. The victim must not have been assisting, attempting or committing a criminal act that caused their injuries.
5. The victim must not have consented to, provoked, or incited the crime that caused the injuries.

BENEFITS

The maximum benefits established in Iowa Code Chapter 915 for a victim in Fiscal Year 2003 were:

APPLICATION PROCESS

The Crime Victim Compensation Program has a simple application form. The form is contained on a postage paid card attached to the program brochure. The program also has a toll free number and accepts applications by telephone. The program has an advocate on staff to assist victims with filing applications and finding other resources. Information about the program is available on the Internet at www.state.ia.us/government/ag/cva.html.

Program brochures and applications in English and Spanish are available from the program, county attorneys, hospitals, law enforcement agencies, victim service programs, and other public agencies. Applications can be filed by mail, by telephone at 1-800-373-5044, or by fax at 515-281-8199.

On receipt of an application, a thorough investigation is conducted to determine eligibility of the applicant and the amount of benefits to be awarded. In FY03, the average processing time from receipt of the application to eligibility determination was 8.5 weeks. The average paid per claim was $2,241. The applicant is notified by mail of the program decision. Approved claims may result in benefits paid directly to a service provider or to a crime victim for the victim's out-of-pocket expenses.

Applicants who are denied compensation or who disagree with the amount of a benefit payment may request reconsideration of the decision by the Division Director. If an applicant disagrees with the decision of the Director, he or she may appeal that decision to the Crime Victim Assistance Board. Decisions of the Board may be appealed to the Iowa District Court.

No tax dollars fund the Crime Victim Compensation Program. Funding for the program, as well as all operational expenses, come from the Compensation Fund established in Iowa Code section 915.94. The Compensation Fund is comprised of fines and penalties paid by criminals including:

- ❖ $100 of the $200 penalty imposed on offenders for operating a vehicle while intoxicated;
- ❖ 18% of the state's 95% share of the 30% surcharge on criminal fines;
- ❖ Federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) funds;
- ❖ Offender restitution;
- ❖ 5% of all wages made by incarcerated offenders outside a corrections institution; and
- ❖ Settlements and awards from civil suits filed by or on behalf of victims against the offender or other party responsible for the crime (subrogation).

CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION PROGRAM FY03 INITIATIVES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Outreach Efforts: In FY03 the Education Coordinator worked with both the Compensation Program and the Grants Program to heighten outreach activities and public awareness of the Crime Victim Assistance Division programs. Training was done across the state with law enforcement agencies, medical providers, victim service providers and members of the general public to create awareness about the program. The program also participated in the training of all graduates of the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy. The Education Coordinator also coordinated five in-service programs to enhance staff knowledge of outside programs.

Crime Victim Rights Week: CVAD sponsored a statewide public ceremony at the Iowa Capitol to challenge public officials and service providers to ensure that all crime victims receive the support and services they need and deserve. Marti Anderson, CVAD Division Director was convener of the event. The Iowa Organization for Victim Assistance, IOVA, presented the annual John and Kay Egan award to an Iowan who provided exemplary service to crime victims at this event. This year's Egan award recipient was Patrick Jackson, the Burlington County Attorney. The featured speakers were Attorney General Tom Miller and Ed Origer, CVAD Board Member who discussed the victimization of his son and the affect of the crime on his family.

Iowa Crisis Response Team: The ICRT continued to meet in FY03 and work on debriefing techniques as well as talking about how to make sure we are known throughout Iowa. The team responded to the following Iowa communities in crisis Milo, Clarinda, and Sheldon. The communities expressed success in dealing with their crises as a result of the ICRT response. A focus for the coming year is to be available for crisis within the Iowa prison system. We are confident that ICRT debriefing after a prison incident is both necessary and helpful to prison staff.

Client Surveys: The Compensation Program sends a client satisfaction survey to each applicant who applies to the program. Victims receive a survey regardless of whether their application is approved or denied. 3,091 applicants were sent surveys in FY03. Of those surveyed, 336, or 9.2%, returned the survey. Selected survey comments were:

"Doing great! Keep it up. People out there need you"

"I am very thankful for this program. It really is helping me a lot since I am only 19 years old and just getting started with my adult"

"This was the greatest service I have ever dealt with. Thank you"

"We feel fortunate to have a program such as this to assist families when a tragedy occurs"

"Very quick and efficient, a greatly appreciated program. Thank you!"

"We have never been involved in a crime situation before and didn't know such programs existed-it is wonderful to have the costs incurred not be totally our responsibility"

030834: An Iowa woman was shot and killed by her estranged boyfriend, who then killed himself. 031042: The victim was in her car stopped at a red light when the suspect got out of the car next to her, opened her car door, reached in the car, grabbed her purse and threw it to the ground. 031314, 031314a, 031314b, 031314c, 031314d, 031314e, 031314f, 031314g, 031314h, 031314i, 031314j, 031314k, 031314k, 031314l, 031314m, 031314n, 031314o, 031314p, 031314q, 031314r, 031314s, 031314t, 031314u, 031314v, 031314w: A northwest Iowa woman was shot and killed by her husband in their home. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid a total of $63,407 for the primary and secondary victims' crime related expenses. On the primary application, the Program paid $7,500 in funeral expenses and $106 for residential crime scene cleanup. On the secondary victim applications, the Program paid $49,763 in homicide survivor lost wages, $3,160 in homicide survivor medical expenses and $2,877 in homicide survivor counseling expenses.

030584: A central Iowa man was shot in the head by an unknown male. The gunshot wound caused the victim to be paralyzed. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid a total of $11,604 for the victim's crime related expenses including $5,504 in medical expenses, $6,000 in lost injury wages and $100 for clothing that was held as evidence.

030700: A central Iowa man was killed when a drunk driver hit his car. The suspect and the suspect's friend had been drinking and began drag racing. When the suspect's vehicle reached approximately 90 miles per hour, he fishtailed and crossed the median, hitting the victim's vehicle on the driver's side and killing him instantly. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid a total of $13,500 in benefits. The Program paid each of his three surviving sons $2,000 in loss of support and $7,500 towards funeral and burial costs.

The jury trial resulted in a first-degree murder conviction against the driver. Restitution was ordered for $150,000 to be paid to the victim's estate, as well as $9,671.32 to the Crime Victim Compensation Program. This was ordered for the victim's funeral and loss of support for the victim's infant daughter as well as $6,742.00 for a combination of lost wages and counseling to 13 family members of the victim.

Although the verdict was overturned by the judge in the case and a new trial ordered, prosecutors are confident that a new trial will result in another first-degree murder verdict, and that the restitution amounts will again be ordered.

Restitution/Subrogation Case Examples

A victim was assaulted and beaten severely by a man with a baseball bat. He sustained numerous injuries, including neurological damage from his multiple head injuries. By the time this application was approved, the defendant had already been sentenced because of a plea bargain. The judge made a supplemental order and ordered restitution to the Crime Victim Compensation Program for money paid on behalf of the victim in the amount of $9,775.70. The fact that restitution was in the sentencing order made it possible for a judge to order this amount, even though the defendant had already been sentenced.

A central Iowa man was assaulted in a bar, and sustained a serious injury to his hand. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid $2,896 on behalf of the victim for his medical expenses. The Program assisted the civil attorney with some information regarding the victim's injuries, and a settlement against the bar was reached. The Program received $1,905 in subrogation, allowing payment of one-third plus a pro-rata share of the civil attorney's expenses.

A Vietnamese woman and her 3-year-old daughter were crossing a city street when they were struck and killed by a speeding driver. Compensation was paid in the amount of $13,904. A small and "woefully inadequate" insurance settlement was recovered, and an agreement was reached between the attorney for the victim's family and the Crime Victim Compensation Program that would allow the family to keep a larger share of the settlement received because of the extreme financial situation of the family.

Advocate Case Examples

A030022: A 17 month-old boy and his mother were riding in a vehicle driven by his father who was drunk and crashed the vehicle. The boy was killed in the crash and the mother was in critical condition in the hospital. The funeral home assisting the family called the Crime Victim Compensation Program for assistance in filing for compensation. The Advocate communicated with law enforcement to determine if the driver would be charged with OWI. Once this was determined, the funeral home had the mother file the applications for herself and her son. The Program paid $6,362 in funeral benefits for the boy. The maximum medical benefit of $15,000 was paid on the mother's claim.

A040191: A man was a passenger in a vehicle driven by a drunk driver. His medical bills exceeded the $15,000 maximum benefit. All of the medical bills were paid with the exception of the hospital bill. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid $7,141 of the $12,269 hospital bill. The Advocate successfully negotiated with the hospital to write off the balance of $5,128.

A030374: The victim's crime-related medical bill accrued $885.13 in finance charges. The Advocate successfully negotiated with the hospital to write off the finance charges. The Crime Victim Compensation Program paid the crime-related charge of $412.88.

CRIME VICTIM ASSISTANCE DIVISION SEXUAL ABUSE EXAMINATION PAYMENT PROGRAM

DETAILED REPORT FISCAL YEAR 2003

The Iowa Sexual Abuse Examination Payment Program was established in 1979 to pay the cost of evidentiary examinations in sexual abuse crimes. Administration of the program was transferred from the Department of Public Health to the CVAD on July 1, 1990. All funds for the program come from the Compensation Fund, which consists of fines and penalties paid by criminals.

Iowa Code section 915.41 states:

"The cost of a medical examination for the purpose of gathering evidence and the cost of treatment for the purpose of preventing venereal disease shall be paid from the fund established in section 915.94 [Victim Compensation Fund]."

PROGRAM PURPOSE

The Sexual Abuse Examination Payment Program purpose is to encourage victims to receive a forensic and medical examination to assure their well-being and collect evidence before it deteriorates. Victims of sexual abuse are not required to report to law enforcement when receiving a medical examination or for the program to pay for the examination.

Evidence of sexual abuse deteriorates significantly during the seventy-two hours immediately following an assault and is best collected within the first twelve hours after the crime. Due to emotional and physical trauma, sexual assault victims often have difficulty deciding whether or not to report the crime to law enforcement within this time frame.

Iowa pays for the sexual abuse examination regardless of whether the victim reports the crime to law enforcement. Because of the rapid deterioration of evidence, this policy assures that prosecutors and law enforcement officers will have evidence efficiently and effectively collected if the victim later reports the crime.

Victims may choose to voluntarily permit a medical facility to submit the examination bill to the victim's insurance carrier. A victim may also choose to not have insurance billed for the cost of a sexual abuse examination. Hospitals, physicians and other providers submit bills directly to the Sexual Abuse Examination Payment Program. In the case that a victim is erroneously billed and pays for the cost of the evidence collection, the program will reimburse that victim up to the limits set in the Iowa Administrative Rules Code.

PROGRAM PROCEDURES

Hospitals, physicians, and laboratories bill the Sexual Abuse Program directly. A victim of sexual abuse should never be billed for the evidentiary examination. If a sexual abuse victim is inadvertently billed by a service provider and pays the bill, the program will reimburse the payment to that her or him according to the limits established by rule.

A victim of sexual abuse may assign the examination bill to their insurance benefits. The program up to limits set in the Iowa Administrative Rules Code can pay costs that a victim does not assign to insurance. The program can pay up to $200 for the examining room, $100 for the examiner fees, and all laboratory and medication costs related to the sexual abuse crime. A victim is not responsible for the balance of charges on a sexual abuse evidentiary examination.

CRIME VICTIM ASSISTANCE DIVISION VICTIM SERVICE GRANT PROGRAM

DETAILED REPORT FISCAL YEAR 2003

The Victim Services Grant Program (VSG) provides partial funding and technical assistance to community-based and statewide victim service programs throughout Iowa. Funded programs investigate and prosecute crimes of violence against women and provide free and confidential services to persons who are victims of violent crime. In FY03 the Victim Services Grant Program administered two state funded and two federally funded grant sources.

In FY03 the VSG managed 211 contracts with 72 public and non-profit organizations awarding a total of $8,785,493 in state and federal funds. Many of the organizations offer programming to victims of more than one type of crime, so are eligible to receive funds from more than one of the four VSG grant sources.

The funded programs served 27,102 crime victims, including the survivors of homicide victims. This represents a service cost to the combined state and federal governments of $324 per Iowa crime victim served with these funds.

In FY03 the VSG received 75% of the funds from the federal government and 25% from the state government. Local victim service programs received an average 46% of their overall program funding from the VSG.

Local programs receiving funds from the Crime Victim Assistance Division in FY03 include 33 domestic abuse programs; 33 sexual abuse programs; 12 prosecutor based programs; 3 homicide victim survivor programs; 2 programs for teen victims of crime; 10 Violence Against Women (VAW) law enforcement officers; 9 VAW prosecutors and 6 VAW statewide positions.

Eight statewide service contracts were awarded in FY03. Children and Families of Iowa in Des Moines received funds to operate the Iowa Domestic Abuse Hotline and the Rape Victim Advocacy Program in Iowa City received funds to operate the Iowa Sexual Abuse Hotline. Also funded was a Violence Against Women (VAW) Curricula Instructor at the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy, a VAW prosecutor in the Area Prosecutions Division of the Iowa Attorney General's office, a Violence Prevention Coordinator at the Iowa Department of Public Health, a Domestic Abuse Coordinator at the State Court Administrator's Office and Multi-cultural Outreach Advocates at the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence and at the Iowa Coalition Against Sexual Assault.

FUND SOURCES

Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) funds are awarded to Iowa by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime. The funds come from the federal VOCA Fund that consists entirely of fines and penalties paid by convicted federal criminals. The funds are collected by U.S. Attorney Offices. These funds are also known as Victim Assistance (VA) Funds.

Violence Against Women Act (VW) funds are awarded to Iowa by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women. These funds are appropriated annually by the U.S. Congress.

Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FV) funds are awarded to Iowa by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Administration for Children and Families, Office of Community Services. These funds are appropriated annually by the U.S. Congress.

Iowa Domestic Abuse (DA) funds and Iowa Sexual Abuse (SA) funds are authorized by the Iowa Attorney General annually from the Victim Compensation Fund. This fund is comprised of criminal fines and penalties.

GRANT APPLICATION AND REVIEW PROCESS

When grant funds become available to from the state or federal government, a statewide press notice is issued. Requests for Proposals (RFP) are available on-line at www.iowaattorneygeneral.org/CVAD/victim_serv.html. RFPs are also available to interested parties in paper format, on computer disc, or by e-mail. A grant-writing workshop is conducted to assist applicants with the application requirements and explain the grant award process.

Grant applications are evaluated for completeness, accuracy, and eligibility by the VSG staff. A volunteer grant review committee is convened to formulate grant award recommendations. Members of the review committee have extensive expertise in victim services, grant management, and public policy. Each application is evaluated by the committee for compliance, completeness, clarity, community support, quality of past services, feasibility of proposal, evidence of efficient program management, geographical area and population served.

The staff meets with the grant review committee to formulate award recommendations to the Division Director who then makes final recommendations to the Crime Victim Assistance Board. The Board determines final grant awards to the extent funds are available and to the extent the applicants meet eligibility criteria. An award notice of the approval and amount of the award or the denial of the request is sent to each applicant. Applicants have 10 days after the date on the Notice of the Board Decision to appeal the decision of the board. A decision rendered by the Crime Victim Assistance Board on appeal constitutes final agency action.

Victim Services Grant Program staff monitor the services, management, and fiscal operations of funded programs for compliance with state and federal regulations.

For a victim of sexual abuse when the offender has been referred pursuant to Iowa Code chapter 229A, the date of the discovery of the crime shall be considered to be the date when the referral was made. The department may waive the requirements of Iowa Code section 915.84(1) if good cause is shown.

9.28(2) Good cause. In determining whether there is good cause for waiver of the two–year application filing requirement, the victim’s age, physical condition, psychological state, cultural or linguistic barriers, and any compelling health or safety reasons that would jeopardize the well–being of the victim may be considered.

9.28(3) Multiple erroneous claims. When two or more applications are filed by or on behalf of an individual applicant during a calendar month and the applications appear on initial review to be erroneous claims based on innocent misrepresentation or circumstances of a similar nature, the claims shall be treated as a single application. The department will notify the applicant whenever two or more applications have been combined as one application.

- c. The name, whereabouts and description of the suspect, if known, and
- d. The names of witnesses, if known.

9.29(3) Law enforcement record. A law enforcement trip record may satisfy the requirement that the crime be reported to law enforcement.

9.29(4) Good cause. In determining whether there is good cause for waiving the requirement to report a crime to law enforcement within 72 hours of the occurrence of the crime, the victim's age, physical condition, psychological state, cultural or linguistic barriers, and any compelling health or safety reasons that would jeopardize the well-being of the victim may be considered.

9.29(5) Child victim. If the victim is a child as defined in Iowa Code section 232.2 and is reported to be a victim of child abuse, the department finds there is good cause to waive the 72-hour reporting requirement.

9.29(6) Dependent adult victim. If the victim is a dependent adult as defined in Iowa Code section 235B.2(4) and is reported to be a victim of dependent adult abuse, the department finds there is good cause to waive the 72-hour reporting requirement.

9.30(3) Polygraph testing. In determining whether a victim reasonably cooperated with law enforcement, the refusal of a victim to undergo a polygraph examination shall not be the basis of denial.

9.30(4) Sexual abuse victim. A victim of sexual abuse shall be deemed to have reasonably cooperated with law enforcement if the victim undergoes a sexual abuse evidentiary examination.

9.30(5) Domestic abuse victim. A victim of domestic abuse shall be deemed to have reasonably cooperated with law enforcement if a report of the crime was made to law enforcement.

61—9.31(915) Contributory conduct. The division shall reduce or disqualify compensation when there is a causal relationship between the contributory conduct on the part of the victim and the victim's injury or death. Contributory conduct includes consent, provocation, or incitement of the crime on the part of the victim.

9.31(1) Consent, provocation, and incitement. In assessing consent, provocation or incitement on the part of the victim pursuant to Iowa Code section 915.87(2)“a,” the division may consider factors including, but not limited to, the following:

- f. Comparable size or strength of the victim and suspect.

9.31(2) Additional assessment of consent. In assessing the causal nature of consent pursuant to Iowa Code section 915.87(2) “a,” the division may consider the victim’s age, physical condition, psychological state, cultural or linguistic barriers, and any compelling health or safety reasons that would jeopardize the well-being of the victim.

9.31(3) Consent in intoxicated driving cases. A victim who was the passenger in the vehicle of a driver who has been determined to have been legally intoxicated at the time of the crash shall not be automatically denied eligibility for compensation. The division may consider whether the victim could have reasonably known the intoxication level of the driver, the driver’s behavior or judgment appeared impaired, the victim encouraged or discouraged the driver from driving, or the victim’s judgment was impaired.

9.31(4) Additional assessment of provocation and incitement. In assessing the causal nature of provocation or incitement pursuant to Iowa Code section 915.87(2) “a,” the division may consider law enforcement documentation that indicates:

a. Retaliatory action. The crime was committed as retaliation for a prior physical assault or injury committed by the victim against the perpetrator, and the victim could have reasonably foreseen the likelihood of retaliation.

- (3) Accepted a verbal challenge to engage in a physical altercation, took action to indicate acceptance of the challenge and a physical altercation immediately followed.

d. Exception to mutual combat. Incitement and provocation are not present in an incident of mutual combat when a significant escalation of the fight, such as the introduction of a deadly weapon, is made by a person other than the victim or when a third party becomes involved resulting in more serious injury than the victim could have reasonably expected.

9.31(5) Victim’s criminal act. Contributory conduct includes assisting in, attempting, or committing a criminal act by the victim. A causal relationship must be documented between the injury or death for which compensation is sought and the criminal act of the victim.

9.32(1) Determination of eligibility. A denial of eligibility shall be based on written documentation that an application does not satisfy the requirements of Iowa Code chapter 915. An applicant shall be deemed eligible for compensation if the division has not obtained written documentation supporting a denial within six months of the date of the application. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the division may extend the determination of eligibility beyond six months if a court date or grand jury hearing is pending and is reasonably expected to result in information necessary to render an eligibility decision.

9.32(2) Reopening applications. Pursuant to Iowa Code section 915.83(2), the department may reopen and reinvestigate an application if the department determines that the decision was incorrect or incomplete. A denied application may be reopened and reinvestigated if it is discovered through a criminal trial or other investigatory source that the information relied upon for the denial decision was incorrect or incomplete. The eligibility of an approved application will be reopened for consideration if information is discovered through a criminal trial or other investigatory source that indicates that there is reason to deny the application. The reopening of a denied or approved case is at the discretion of the administrator for the compensation program.

9.34(1) Benefit limits. Compensation shall be made up to the benefit category limits in effect on the date the application is filed. For an eligible victim of sexual abuse when the offender has been referred pursuant to Iowa Code chapter 229A, compensation shall be paid for expenses incurred after referral of the offender.

9.34(2) Payer-of-last-resort. The program is a payer-of-last-resort pursuant to federal law 42 U.S.C. 10602(1403). Compensation shall not be paid for services when the provision for those services is mandated by law or administrative rule to be the responsibility of another governmental unit, private agency or program. Payments shall be reduced by payments made by offenders and third parties responsible for the damages of the crime.

9.34(3) Voluntary financial programs. Compensation applicants will be encouraged to apply for other financial assistance programs to pay costs resulting from the crime-related injury. However, no applicant will be denied compensation benefits based on the applicant's refusal to seek funds from a voluntary financial assistance program.

9.34(4) Insurance providers. Eligible victims and claimants must give service providers the information necessary to bill insurance providers for crime-related treatment. Payment of compensation will not be made if the victim refuses or fails to provide information requested by the service or insurance provider or sign the required assignment of benefits within a reasonable time frame.

9.34(5) Supplanting of funds prohibited. Compensation shall be made only when the claimant is responsible for the cost of crime-related injury.
